Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 30 October 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4, 7-9, 13 and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Donovan (3,510,049). Donovan discloses the limitations of the claims including a food container (figs. 1-3) comprising foam bottom hingeably joined to a transparent top (Abstract), first flap (16a), second flap (14a), adhesive (col. 2, line 33), heat seal (31), top/bottom being dish shaped (col. 2, line 65), top cover comprising material other than polystyrene (col. 3, line 60), first/second lips (fig. 1, outwardly extending flange about the periphery of both top cover and bottom compartment) wherein said container is nestable (inherent by design).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, 10-12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Donovan in view of OFFICIAL NOTICE. Donovan excludes what

Art Unit: 3781

Examiner takes OFFICIAL NOTICE of, joining the top cover and the bottom compartment by ultrasonic welding would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention in order to facilitate an alternate, timely and effective means of attaching the two sections.

Regarding the material quantities, it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416. Therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to have modified Donovan with the specified material properties in order to achieve an operable working condition while utilizing a cost effective material.

Claims 1, 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Bixler et al. (4,742,952). Bixler et al. disclose the limitations of the claims including a food container comprising foam bottom (col. 2, line 35) hingeably joined to a transparent top (col. 1, line 62), latch hole (V) and tab (17). Bixler et al. exclude a bottom compartment with a hole and a top cover with a tab but rather the opposite. Therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to have modified Bixler et al. with the aforementioned structural features in order to achieve varying design. Moreover, it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 3781

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
